Live what we believe – A Message from our Pastor

I know there are many things I just can not do on my own. Forgiveness? Sometimes. Hold my tongue? Sometimes. Be kind? Sometimes. You get the picture. There is much we CAN do, but so much we can not; except we can with God's help. Our testimony is that of Saint Paul, "I CAN DO all things through Christ who gives me strength".
– Phil. 4:13.

Welcome friends to worship. Welcome to a time when we give up and allow the Holy Spirit to pour into us more fully, pushing out our lack of forgiveness, willpower, and joy. This is the second week of Pentecost, Trinity Sunday. May we not just celebrate it, but experience it!

I am so grateful to Dr. Blankenship, Dr. Dodgen, and Manny for breaking God's Word to you these last three weeks. How blessed our church family is. I return from vacation renewed, rejoicing in what God has done and what He is doing. I am blessed to be among you again today!

If you are a guest this morning, I pray you leave feeling like family! Family, please help make that happen through the enablement of the Holy Spirit.

WHO WE ARE

Our Vision

We believe that God has put us here at this time to faithfully seek Him and make Him known through our prayers, presence, gifts, service, and witness.

Our Values*

Prayer, Love, Worship
Bible-Based Preaching & Teaching
Children & Youth Ministry

What We Believe

Many people believe they are Christian because they were born into a religious home or they go to church, tried their best, or are a moral person. However, the Bible teaches that these things do not make you a Christian. You become a Christian simply by:

- Acknowledging that you, like all people have sinned and fallen short of God's standards. The Bible calls sin a desire to live independently of God. (Romans 3:23)
- Personally believing that Jesus Christ died for your sins on the cross and rose again. (Romans 6:23)
- Repenting (turning away from your sins), confessing, and accepting Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior. (Romans 10:9)

You may express your desire and belief in prayer, asking Jesus to come into your life, and receiving grace as God's gift to you. The Bible is clear that we all enter into a relationship with God through His mercy and grace.
